Contract with Sandia Science and Technology Park Development Corporation (STPDC) to Manage the Development of Improvements at the Sandia Science and Technology Park (SS&TP)

Attached is a contract with STPDC to install signage and a “pocket park” at the SS&TP, along Innovation Parkway at Gibson Avenue SE. STPDC is the manager for the development of the SS&TP, as designated by the Memorandum of Understanding approved by City Council, which created the SS&TP. The project will cost $240,000 to be paid with the 2004 appropriation by the New Mexico State Legislature. There will be no cost to the City. Residents of Albuquerque will benefit without the City paying for construction or operating expenses. This EC is forwarded to Council for consideration and approval.
